ELECTRIC CARS CRASH DYING, 15 ARE INJURED

UNDER RUINS; MANY MOTORMAN BURIED
PERSONS ON ATTLEBORO CARS INJURED.

ATTLEBORO, June 24.—An explosion is being made by the authorities to place the blame for a head-on collision between two electric cars on the Attleboro & Plainville line of the Rhode Island Company at 7:15 today, in which more than fifteen persons were hurt, one fatally and several seriously.

The Rhode Island Company is one of the New Haven Railroad's best customers. It is declared by people in the vicinity of the wreck that there was failure on the part of an extra car coming from North Attleboro to Attleboro to display the company's signals to show that another car was following.

CONFUSION FOLLOWS CRASH.
The North Attleboro-bound car left the switch on West street, and at Broadway Center dashed into the Attleboro-bound car, which was proceeding in the opposite direction. The collision was a head-on one, and the result was a crash of such violence that the cars were hurled into the air and fell to the ground in a tangled mass.

Passengers were thrown in every direction, and many were injured. Some were killed, and many were seriously hurt. The cars were completely wrecked, and the scene was one of confusion and horror.

THE INJURED:
HARRING, JAMES, thirty-one years, salesman, North Attleboro, both legs and both arms broken, chest crushed, internal injuries. Rhode Island Hospital.

SERIOUSLY HURT.

Merger Bill to Be Amended by Lodge PLAN TO SAVE

Speaker Cole, Chairman Faxon and Senator Lodge a Conference.

As a result of a conference Speaker Cole had with Senator Henry Cabot Lodge and Chairman Faxon of the Senate Committee on Railroads the Speaker's New York, New Haven & Hartford-Rhode Island & Maine merger bill will be amended. It is believed by the Speaker that the amendments will be made in time to pass the bill before the adjournment of the session.

The amendments to the bill will be considered by the House today and it is expected that the bill will be passed before the adjournment of the session.

HEARD CRIES OF INJURED.
People living near the scene of the crash heard the cries of the injured and rushed to the scene. They found the cars in a tangled mass, and many people lying on the ground.

It was seen at once that Harding, who is first of the injured, was in a serious condition. He was taken to the Rhode Island Hospital, and it is expected that he will recover. The other injured persons are also being treated at the hospital.

MOTHER PRAISES HERO.
While they were waiting the arrival of the car his aged mother, Mrs. Mary Harding, arrived. Her grief was terrible. She said that she had been told that her son was dead, and she had been told that he was killed.

Felled by Man on Street and Money Taken From Her at Noon To-day—Robber Is Hunted by Police of Whole City.

Bertha Goldberg, a bookkeeper in a provision store at No. 331 Harrison avenue, was knocked down and robbed of $2,027 at the corner of Harrison avenue and Gloucester place at noon to-day by a man for whom the entire police force of the city are searching.

The girl was on her way to the South End National Bank. She fought desperately. The man escaped by jumping through the cellar of the apartment house known as the Hotel Madison.

The girl pursued him. He slammed a gate in her face and fastened it, while Miss Goldberg screamed for help. Only children were in sight at the time, and the man easily got away. The money was in bills ranging from $1 to $100.
